

Children's Bulletin

Jesus told the disciples that Jerusalem would soon be destroyed. But he promised to come back to make all things right. What did he tell God's people do in the mean time?

In the temple one day, Jesus watched the rich put their gifts in the offering box. Then he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. "She has put in more than all of them," he said. Do you know why he said that? *Starting with the A, write every other letter around the wheel to read what Jesus said next. (Go around twice.)

"Out of her poverty, she has put in

He Holds the Future

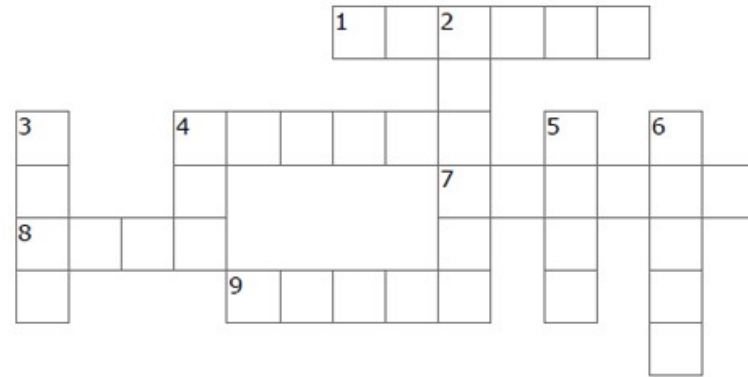

He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. Luke 21:8 (NIV)

Based on Luke 21:5-19

It is foolish to think that a piece of paper in a fortune cookie can tell the future. It is foolish to believe anyone but Jesus.

One day Jesus gave his disciples a warning. They should be careful about false teachers who would try to mislead them. "Many will come in my name claiming to be the Messiah." Don't be misled by those who claim to know things only God knows or who claim to be the Messiah. Put your trust and faith in Jesus alone. He is God!
