Although she was a Moabite, Ruth was ready to accept Naomi's God, the one true God, as her own God. Are you?

- ☐ yes
- ☐ no
- ☐ maybe

A famine swept the land of Israel. So a certain Israelite man moved his wife and two sons to Moab. Moab had food, but its people worshiped idols. The man and his sons died.

When Naomi heard that God had provided food again in Judah, she wanted to go back. She told her Moabite daughters-in-law to return to their families. What did the two women do?

- ☐ Both returned to their families in Moab.
- ☐ One returned, and one went with Naomi.
- ☐ Both went with Naomi.

*This is God,
our God forever and ever.*

He will guide us forever.

Psalms 48:14

Ruth said, "Do not urge me to leave you...for where you  I will , and where you
 I will . Your  will be my and your  my . Where you  I will
, and there will I be buried." (RUTH 1:16-17)

One daughter-in-law kissed Naomi and went back to her people. Write the first letter of each picture below to read her name.

The other one would not leave Naomi. Write the first letter of each picture below to read her name.
