be with you all.”

Paul was in Corinth when he wrote to the believers in Rome. He and his helpers had been spreading the Gospel and planting churches in the region. Now Paul hopes to visit the Romans. But first he will go somewhere else. To see where he went, write the first letter of each picture below. Then find the place on the map and circle it.

The believers in Jerusalem were needy. Paul had collected gifts for them from churches in Macedonia and Achaia [Find the places on the map from the front page, north of Corinth.] Those churches followed Proverbs 3:27. Use this code to read the proverb.
