Earthly rulers are foolish to oppose the kingdom of Christ. He has the power to destroy them! The psalmist tells them what to do instead. Rearrange the letters of the mixed-up words from Psalm 2:10-12.

"Now therefore, O kings, be ____ ____ ____;
SWIE

be warned, O rulers of the earth.

Serve the LORD with ____ ____ ____ ,

perish in the way,

for his wrath is quickly kindled.

Blessed are ____ ____ ____ who take refuge in him."

In Psalm 2, David sings of the kingdom of Christ, which is opposed by the kings of the earth. Human rulers rebel against the LORD and his people. Who will win in the end?

Rearrange the tiles to read Psalm 97:1.

Let the earth rejoice...!

“He who sits in the heavens laughs.” Psalm 2:4

The LORD laughs at earthly rulers who think they can defeat him. He is all-powerful, all-knowing, all-victorious! In fact, Isaiah says God views such a prince as if he were a certain insect. Connect the dots to see what it is.

“It is he [the LORD] who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like g _ _ _ _ _ s...”

Isaiah 40:22

Who is God’s King?

“As for me, I have set my King on Zion,
my holy hill.” (Psalm 2:6)

- He was chosen by God’s eternal decree (v. 7)
- He is God’s Son. (v. 7)
- He inherits all the nations. (v. 8)
- He defeats God’s enemies. (v. 9)

God’s King is _____.
