

Believers are saved in God’s mercy, not good works. But Paul told Titus to insist that those who profess Christ devote themselves to good works. Write the first letter of each picture below to read why.

“These things are

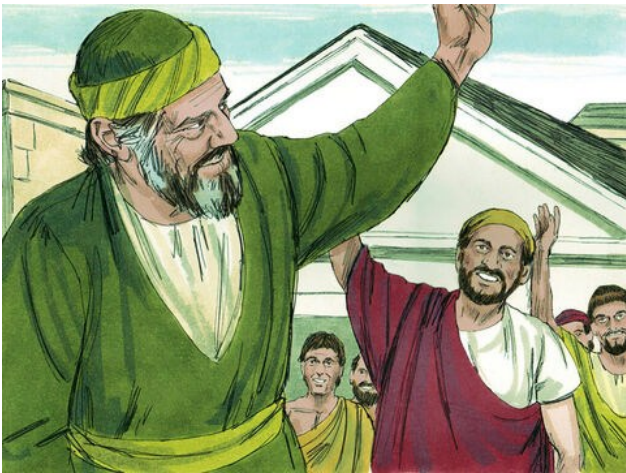

and

for people.” TITUS 3:8

Children’s Bulletin

The apostle Paul had left his friend Titus on the island of Crete. Later Paul sent Titus a letter to remind the believers there that they were different now. They used to be foolish, disobedient, malicious, envious, and hateful. What changed them? Use this code to see.

We who have been saved by Jesus Christ are new creatures. We must be ready for every good work he calls us to do. Check which statement is true of those who trust in Jesus Christ for our salvation.

- ☐ We earned our salvation by doing good works
- ☐ We received God's mercy when we turned from our sin
- ☐ We humbly obey those in authority, since God put them there
- ☐ We ignore rules and anyone in charge
- ☐ We pass on stories that make others look bad
- ☐ We are kind and polite to everyone because we reflect Christ
- ☐ We humbly try to avoid foolish arguments
- ☐ We like to be right and have the last word
