Psalm 131 is another song of David. The shepherd boy was anointed king of Israel, but he is humble. His success is not due to himself, but to the goodness of the LORD. Use this code to read verse one.

“LORD, my  is not lifted  ;

my  are not raised  high;

I do not occupy myself with things

 great and  marvelous for me.”

Having calmed and quieted his soul, David says he is “like a weaned child with his mother.” (v. 2)

Instead of selfishly demanding what he wants, he is CONTENT.
