

The cornerstone of a building is what keeps it stable. It holds everything together.

Peter says that the church is God's building, a spiritual house made up of living stones. The cornerstone of that building was "rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen." (1 Peter 2:4) Follow the directions to read who he is.

Peter had told the exiled believers in Rome, "Be holy because God is holy." (1 Peter 1:16). They must get rid of sinful attitudes they held before they were born again in Christ. If you are holding on to any of these sins, trash them!

- ☐ Malice "You hurt me, so I am going to hurt you!"
- ☐ Deceit "This isn't true, but I am going to let you think it is."
- ☐ Hypocrisy "I don't really feel this way, but I'll pretend to be honest."
- ☐ Envy "I don't like you because you have something I want."
- ☐ Slander "I will say bad things about you so no one will like you."

A newborn infant longs for his mother's milk. Her pure milk helps him to grow up healthy.

Likewise, newborn Christians should long for teaching that is like "pure spiritual milk" to help them grow up into salvation. What is pure teaching founded on? Use this code to find out!
