PSALM 133:3

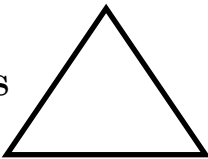

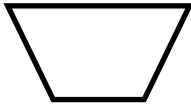

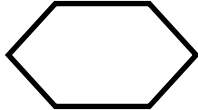

Psalm 133 is a song of David. “Behold how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity!” he wrote (v. 1) Connect the dots to read what brothers are when that happens.

David uses two images to describe what that unity is like. Use the shapes to read what they are.

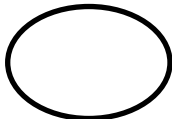

It is like the precious  on the ,

running down on the ,

on the  of Aaron,

running down on the collar of his  !

It is like the  of Hermon,

which falls on the mountains of  !
